

Production Team Evaluation Rubric

2022 Hoggetowne Medieval Faire

Robin Hood : Outlawed

EVALUATION

The Membership will evaluate each Production Team on their application materials and presentation. This will be done through an online form using MailChimp. Here are the criteria on which each team will be evaluated.

The Team with the highest evaluation will be selected to produce Robin Hood: Outlawed at the 2022 Hoggetowne Medieval Faire.

- The Production Team's qualifications
 - Each Production Head's resume demonstrates the necessary skills for their position.
 - Each Production Head has relevant experience.
 - The Team overall demonstrates complementary skill sets.
 - The Team's application instills confidence in their ability to successfully produce this show.
- The effectiveness of the Director's Concept
 - The Concept is in keeping with the approved script and the City guidelines for the show.
 - The Concept will work well for our audiences.
 - Each part of the show works well together.
 - The Concept integrates street performances into the script.
 - The Concept is clear and understandable.
- The effectiveness of the Production Statement
 - The Team conveys ideas in a logical manner.
 - The Statement addresses all areas of the production fully.
 - This sounds like an exciting rehearsal process.
 - The Team demonstrates cohesive ideas on how to implement the show.

- How well did the Team answers the questions from the Board and Membership
 - The Team gives clear examples to justify responses to the questions.
 - The Team conveys ideas in a logical order.
 - The Team demonstrated the ability to express their ideas.
 - The Team demonstrated the ability to think on their feet and respond quickly.
 - The Team followed the instructions of the board and moderator during their presentation and questions.
- Overall excitement to work with Production Team
 - The Team shows ideas to help create cast unity.
 - The Team has plans to respect performers' time.
 - The Team demonstrates that they will implement safeguards for all TGP members.
 - The Team creates an atmosphere that members want to work in.